Charlie Scott from WMATA introduced the changes proposed for FY2024.

Councilmember McClellan asked Mr. Scott if it would be possible for the Yellow Line to resume its previous route to Greenbelt. Mr. Scott said that everything is reviewed annually and the decisions may change in future years.

Councilmember Simasek questioned whether weekday and weekend service would be the same. Mr. Scott replied that WMATA's aim is consistent service across all days.

Councilmember Haba said that the proposal Mr. Scott presented will do a disservice to Hyattsville residents. His hope is that WMATA will act as a partner to make service more convenient. Mr. Scott acknowledged that there are some inconveniences.

Council President Solomon asked if WMATA has data on station-jumping and whether the data is different from one station to another based on revenue. Mr. Scott said that fare revenue was not a factor in the service proposal. WMATA hopes to improve equity for Green Line users. Mr. Scott said that WMATA has statistics on fare-jumping.

Councilmember Solomon asked if WMATA plans to apply for any of the infrastructure grants from the federal government. Mr. Scott said WMATA would like to have more 'pocket tracks' and though that it more long term, and they expect to work with the federal administration including utilizing grants moving forward.
