TITLE OF MOTION: FY22 Budget Initiative: Hyattsville COVID Sanitization Support
RECOMMENDATION: I move that Mayor and Council include funding in the amount of $15,000 in the FY22 budget for the Department of Public Works to purchase, install and maintain six (6) mobile hand-washing and sanitization stations for deployment within Hyattsville Business Corridors.
SUMMARY BACKGROUND: Requesting the purchase of mobile hand washing stations and some foot operated hand-sanitizing stations to assist with stopping the spread of COVID, especially amongst the homeless population. Suggested locations will be coordinated with DPW, but currently include the Hamilton Street and Route One corridors.
ANTICIPATED STAFF RESOURCES REQUIRED TO IMPLEMENT: Public Works for purchase, location, property owner coordination, installation, parts, supplies and maintenance.
NEXT STEPS: Research costs, types, and maintenance of available equipment. DPW, Financial and Legal Review. required. DPW will work with County and State on utilization in public right of way where applicable. DPW will purchase, install, and maintain units.
CITY ADMINISTRATOR / DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR COMMENT: Staff will review existing and potential equipment type and make recommendations on location, property boundaries and coordination required. Some coordination with business owners, County and State property lines may be required. Regular maintenance will be required for the upkeep of the units and will be done by Parks staff. We anticipate some costs for parts and supplies—TBD.
